The Evangelism Report for March, 2018

Joseph Lee Sullivan, Evangelist.

Dear church family,

This is my final report. At least for now. It makes more sense to use one outlet than two. I have been blogging and will focus on only detailing my work through that source.

Story-line:

This month I moved from CA to FL. I drove across the country. While driving through Arizona, on March 4th, 2018, I stopped at a church there, called the Northern AZ Church of Christ. The church of Christ was unconventional. But what got my attention, was the sermon. It had no scripture, except John 3:16 and was framed to undermine the Bible and the reliability of its authority. The preacher, a young millennial, Tad Klein, said we need to leave our beliefs at the door and be unified with the denominational world. That Alexander Campbell invented the church of Christ. And that the way we, (the Lord's church) follow the Bible and worship God, is wrong. His teaching is nothing new. It's spreading around the US churches. It's actually strong in Tampa, FL as well. There was a preacher there (Matthew Kenneth Gregory) who corrupted a lot of people with this doctrine. The movement is called, "The Community movement" or the "Emerging church movement." It will do us no good to save souls and support the kingdom, if this movement undermines the Word and the church crumbles within. We need to fight this, mark false teachers, warn others, put their names online, tell other churches about them to black list them, so they can't get hired to pollute the Lord's body. I walked out of that church. But watching these Christians sit there, saying amen, while this guy was teaching them things that would slowly turn them away from the faith and His church, was heart breaking. Especially seeing this acceptance with the young people.

To learn more about this movement, see this link, www.churchofchristevangelism.com/grounding.html. This link also has articles on how to refute their arguments. It would be great if someone made an Online list of false teachers and encouraged others to share such teachers. Of course, each person needs to give proof to be shared as well, so it's not hear say. The guy I mentioned, if you Googled the church I named, has sermons you can hear. By their fruits you will know them. This needs to be done with love. Love for the church, love for the saints, love for the truth. If we do nothing, this movement will continue to spread. Have nothing to do with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. I know some people think we should close our eyes and mouths and do nothing, otherwise, we are "intolerant and mean." The Bible says we are to refute error. And to warn others. See a article I wrote on Bible verses dealing the need to warn others.

Evangelism Report for the month of March 2018 Joseph Lee Sullivan

I've been busy with the move this month but took the time to write an eBook that can be read online, downloaded, as well as printed for group studies. The book is titled "Street and Campus Evangelism 101." The book is free and is accessible here www.churchofchristevangelismreport.com/free-material-store-page.html. There is also a lot of other free content on evangelism at this link too. The above site and this site here, www.churchofchristevangelism.com has a lot of detailed outreach material to learn from and study.

May God bless you and those who love His Son.

In Brotherly Love,

Joseph Sullivan
